

Vice President Job Description

The Itazuke Alumni Association (IAA) Vice President provides a backup to the President and all President duties whenever the President is unavailable, or in the event that the President resigns (See President Job Description for details).

In addition, the Vice President is the designated member of the Board who functions as a liaison to the IAA Reunion Committee. The VP will communicate with the Reunion Committee and report progress to the Board. Likewise, the VP will take inputs from the Board to relay their suggestions to the Reunion Committee.