SPECIAL CLASSES

Mr. Crompton. Back row - Roger Griffith, Darrel Tassara, Ronald Johnson, Middle Row - Raymond Gervais, Roger Hanstine, Larry Littman, DeVaughn Bird, Front Row - Bruce Engle, Wanda Allbright, Stella Addis
Absent - George Neuman

The aims and goals of the Special Class are to train handicapped children to care for themselves, and not be burdens to themselves, their families or to society — thus becoming good and useful citizens.

SPEECH

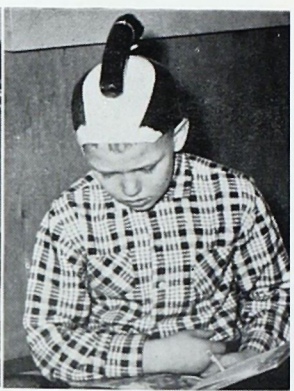

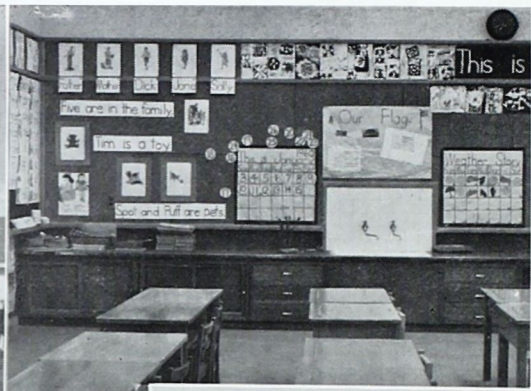

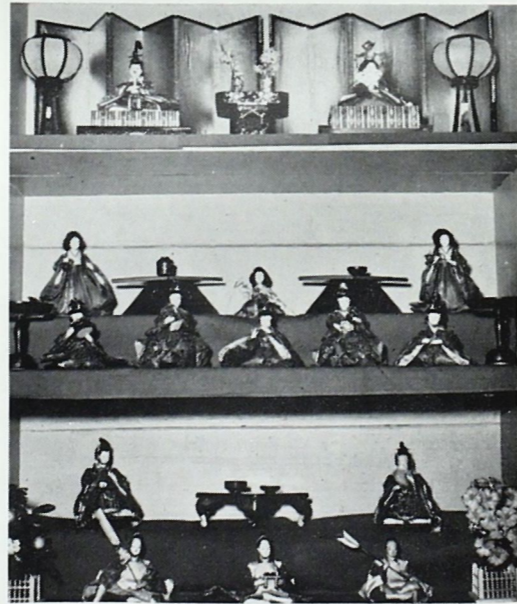

Speech Therapy tries to help students who have trouble with problems of articulation, stuttering, voice or hearing. Classes are very small with from one to four students. Any student in the Dependent School may be enrolled in these classes which meet twice a week for thirty minutes.

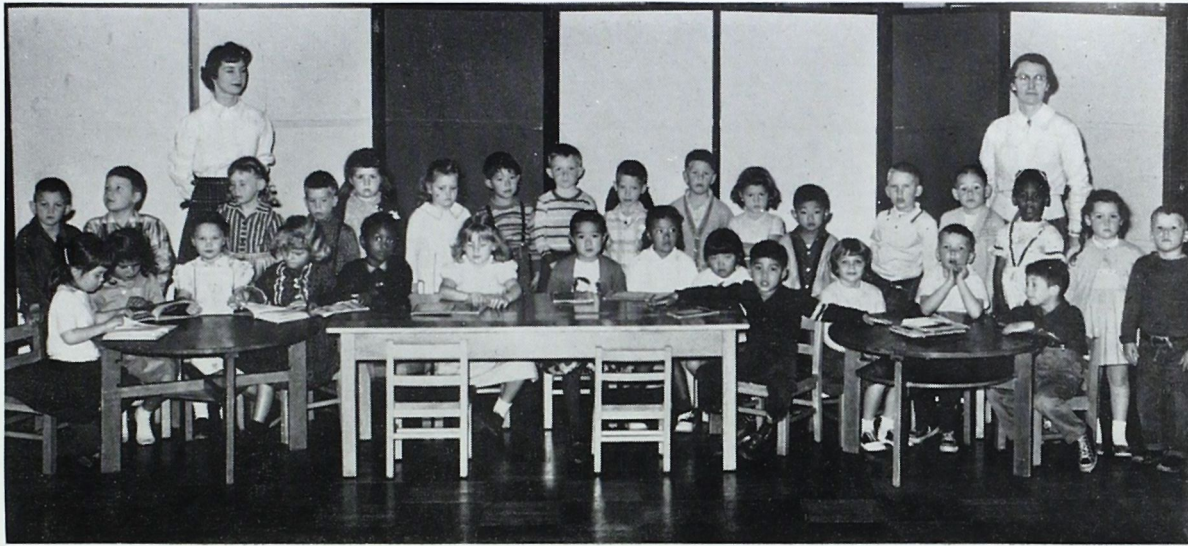

Japanese Culture instruct the children in Japanese Culture, fairy tales, and the language.

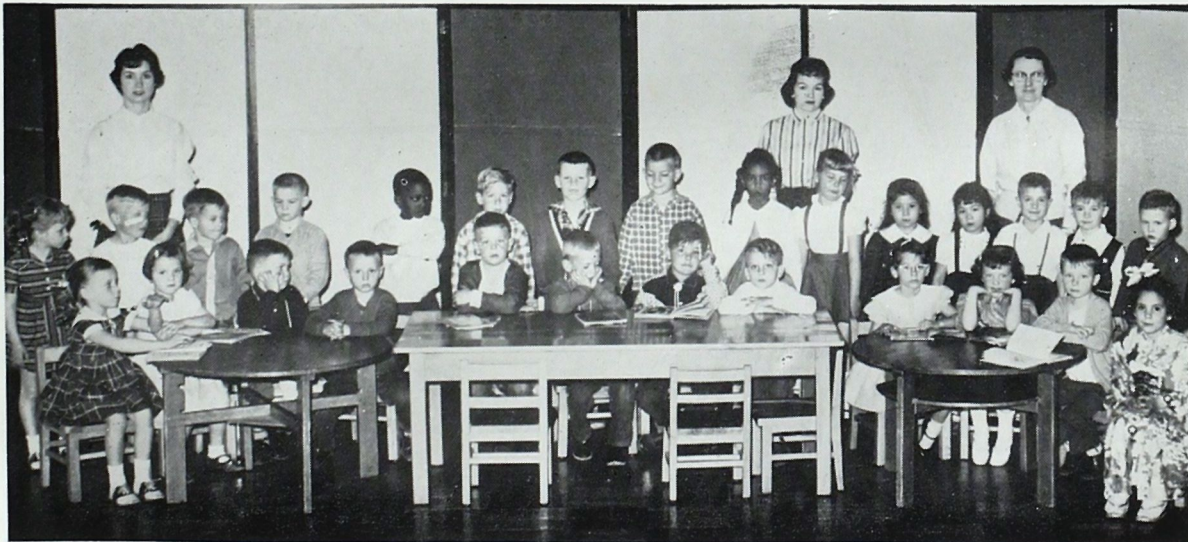

The children have taken a few trips to points of interest near by.
