The Bamboo Staff of IHS proudly presents the 1965 Bamboo.

Though we are few in number this year at IHS, we believe all classes have shown exceptional spirit and have stuck together to make the 1965 school year one to be remembered. Even in sports we have shown what a small group can do if they have the team and school spirit such as our teams have had this year.

We of the Bamboo Staff hope that his annual will bring fond and treasured memories to you in the many years to come. Many of us will have a long and bumpy ride on the road to success but just think back on those good old days when we roamed the bright and shiny halls of I.H.S. Yes, these will be "the good'ol days."

We would like to thank all the faculty members, administration, students, Mr. Osterhout and Mr. Oga, and the staff personnel who have made it possible for us to publish this 1965 BZMBOO.

THE SENIORS LEAVE THE FOLLOWING WILLS:

Donna Babin: All my newspapers to my brother, Brian; and my drawing talent to Vickie Hugger and Sandy Nutter.

Barbette Barnes: To next years Bamboo Editor all my empty A.P.C. bottles; to Judie Krzesniak all the fun and trouble that comes from being a Brady-ite; and to Susie Q. the heticness of being a Senior.

Judy Barron: My French brains to Janet Hooper; and my ability to make passing grades to my younger brothers.

Martha Blevins: My ability to play Volleyball to Pam Stultz; and my ability to set up successful Bake Sales to next year's V.P. in hopes they make more money than we.

Jim Bond: My left tenny to Liz Johnson; my speed to Sam Jones; and my ability to do everything to the greatest U.C. of them all--Mike Davis.

Gloria Briseno: To my brother, Mario, all my smarts; and to Teri Gomez my Government book and wish her luck.

Wes Day: My ability to pick the lock on Ozzies' photo paper cabinet and "borrow" paper to Jerry Easley.

Jim Dwyer: my four year old basketball uniform to Mario Briseno; and to Sandy Nutter my alarm clock.

Lou Easley: My seat in Mr. K.'s English 1V Class to any Junior girl that likes to "make eyes" at him.

Marcia Gay: To Jerry Easley my extra tenny boppers; my sailor dress to Lee Rice; and my ability to keep my locker clean to Terri Nelson.

Bill Holden: To the Junior Class my attributes of honesty, loyalty, intelligence, good looks, athletic prowess and modesty.

Nancy Jones: To Sue Reinheimer my last bottle of eye-liner; to Carol Woodbury my cowboy boot; and to Bev Black my Karate Kick.

Don Krzesniak: To Billy and Vickie all my "Ju'en".

Barb Lewis: My chair in the Senior Lounge to any Junior who can "keep" it; and to Becky and Sue my singing ability.

Gill Milne: To Billy my ability to be just one jump ahead of the A.P.'s; to Glenn my Japanese Dictionary.

Jean Speed: To my brother, Bill, all the luck and success he may need for his Senior year.

Terry Yamashita: All the bake sales, car washes, dress down days, Senior Lounge and my fan club to the Junior Class.

Hey Mr. Clark, is this what the Lettermen's Club does to show their athletic ability?

Members this?

"Which way did they go, Miss McCrann?"
 Goi says, "Up!"
 Sue says, "I don't care!"
 (Miss Peeler is praying for them).

Zorlova peers suspiciously at Lucy who has just knocked at her door.

Aunt Martha is telling her two young nephews what foolishness Christmas is.
